

—DIED: Thursday, September 2nd, at his home in the lower valley, William Duckett, aged 32 years, of a complication of heart and lung diseases. Mr. Duckett's wife died last spring near Aspen, and their family of six children are thus left without father or mother. He was a son of Mr. J. L. Duckett, an old and highly respected citizen of the valley. The funeral will take place at four o'clock this afternoon (Friday) from the Ross school house, Rev. Thomas Griffith officiating.
