

Charles Henry, 10 years of age, a pupil at the Indian school, died last night. He suffered from paralysis, and was ill only a few days. The remains will be laid to rest in the burial ground at the school. The little fellow came to the school from the Navajo reservation and was a bright young boy. The death caused general sorrow among the pupils. The funeral service and interment took place this afternoon.

charles henry 1905

Clipped By:

skarenm

Wed, Jul 6, 2022