

COUNTY'S OLDEST CEMETERY LIES NEAR WHITEWATER; DAYS OF DESERT RECALLED THERE

Traditions of Men Dying With Their Beasts on the Cattle Ranges Here Seen to Be Borne Out by Graves Showing No Signs of Markers or Attention of Any Sort

It is a story which is told in the pages of the county's oldest newspaper, the Whitewater Star, that the oldest cemetery in the county is located near the town of Whitewater. The cemetery is known as the "Old Burial Place" and is located on the east side of the town. The cemetery is said to be the oldest in the county because it is the only one that has been in existence since the first settlement of the area. The cemetery is said to be a "ghost town" because it has no markers or attention of any sort. The cemetery is said to be a "ghost town" because it has no markers or attention of any sort.

The cemetery is said to be a "ghost town" because it has no markers or attention of any sort. The cemetery is said to be a "ghost town" because it has no markers or attention of any sort.

The cemetery is said to be a "ghost town" because it has no markers or attention of any sort. The cemetery is said to be a "ghost town" because it has no markers or attention of any sort.

Adios for Today

ADIOS TO THE CITY OF GOD today, the City of God which has been with us for many years. The City of God is a city of peace and love, and we are glad to have it with us. ADIOS TO THE CITY OF GOD today, the City of God which has been with us for many years. The City of God is a city of peace and love, and we are glad to have it with us.

Just a Minute, Please!

Just a minute, please! We are sorry that we cannot give you more information at this time. We are doing our best to serve you, and we appreciate your patience. Just a minute, please! We are sorry that we cannot give you more information at this time.

20 Years Ago

Today in Grand Junction
Twenty years ago, on November 16, 1921, the town of Grand Junction celebrated its twentieth anniversary. The town has grown and prospered since that time, and we are proud of its achievements. Today in Grand Junction, the town has grown and prospered since that time.

whitewater_cem_nov_1941

Clipped By: skarenm
Fri, Sep 16, 2022

