Mesa County Genealogical Society (MCGS) Resources

Publications

Mesa Dwellers is the MCGS newsletter. Published quarterly, it contains interesting and informative articles regarding family history research.

MCGS Library

Located on the 2nd floor of the Museum of the West in the Loyd Files Research Library, the society library maintains an extensive collection of books and periodicals to help you with your research.

Help Sessions

On the first Friday of each month an experienced MCGS researcher can assist you, at no charge, with your research problem at various Mesa County Library Branches. Contact your library to register.

Welcoming all who are interested in their Family History

What We Do

- Promote an interest in genealogy
- Encourage and instruct members in the art and practice of genealogical research
- Maintain and elevate genealogical standards, stressing the importance of accuracy in research through careful documentation
- Locate, preserve and index public and private genealogical records
- Make such records available to members and the general public
- Assist and support any genealogical library in Colorado which is open to the public

Monthly Meetings

Meeting programs offer a variety of subjects of interest to genealogists. Members are encouraged to bring research issues to the meetings.

- Second Thursday of each month from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM in the Garden Room at The Commons of Hilltop. 625 27 1/2 Rd., Grand Junction
- Fourth Wednesday of each month from Noon to 1:00 PM. (January – October) Bring your lunch and join us in the lower level conference room at the Museum of the West, 5th and Ute, Grand Junction

(a short business meeting follows the noon meeting)
